LOCALLY GROWN IN A CUBICFARM

CubicFarms is a Canadian Ag-tech company founded by farmers. Our commercial scale growing systems use less water, land, energy, labour, waste, and require no pesticides.

"ALLWays Local" Produce benefits people, planet, and the economy by shortening the distance between us and our food while minimizing natural resource use. High quality, crunchy, and vibrant, these fresh leafy greens have 45% more nutrients and uses 95% less water because it is grown in a clean indoor environment, 365 days a year.
